TO: All Personnel

FROM: Curt Glaser, Human Resources Manager

SUBJECT: Death of Howard Wagner

HOWARD CHARLES WAGNER In loving memory of Howard Charles Wagner, May 1, 1930 - Sept. 30, 2012. Charlie, as his family called him, was a born and raised New Yorker. As a young man, he joined the navy where he served in the Korean war and traveled all over the world. It was while stationed in San Diego that he met his wife Phyllis Peterson. They were married for 57 years and raised four children, Connie Wilkins of Apple Valley, Cheryl Scamfer of Victorville, Patricia Lomacky of FL, and their deceased son Chuck. During that time, Charlie worked as a San Diego Fireman for 26 years. After retiring, the couple became snowbirds residing in Yuma, AZ. And traveling cross country spending their summers in North Carolina, where Charlie volunteered as a rafting instructor on the Nantahala River. Charlie also took up the hobby of oil painting and won numerous awards for his work. We would like to give a special thanks to what we consider our extended family at Sterling Commons. We could not have done it without you. Charlie and his loving wife will both be placed in Fort Rosecrans Cemetery in San Diego.
