ANNOUNCEMENT

DATE: November 10, 2011

TO: All Personnel

FROM: Curt Glaser, Human Resources Manager

SUBJECT: Death of Retired Deputy Fire Marshal Joe Cage

DISPOSITION: Read/Post/Destroy December 30, 2011

Retired Deputy Fire Marshal Joe Cage passed away on October 27th, 2011. He was 70 years old.

Joe joined the Department in December 1986 as a Code Enforcement Officer in Brush Management. He promoted through the ranks to Fire Prevention Inspector II before transferring out of the Department.

Joe was so proud to work for the San Diego Fire-Rescue Department, he used to break the ice on inspections by saying he had “AHJ,” which meant Authority Having Jurisdiction.

Joe retired from the City in October 2006 but worked provisionally until August 2007.

No services were announced and per the request of his family, no condolence information was provided.

Joe will be truly missed by not only his family but all the people he came into contact with. Joe’s wife of 34 years, Helen, asked that donations be made to the Fireman’s Relief Association.
